Professional Designations

Brian R. Lipton holds the professional designations of CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (“CFP®”), Accredited Investment Fiduciary (“AIF®”), and Certified Public Accountant (“CPA”).

The CFP® certification is a financial planning credential awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. (the “CFP Board”) to individuals who meet its education, examination, experience and ethics requirements. Eligible candidates are generally required to have three years of financial planning related experience and possess a bachelor’s degree from an accredited U.S. college or university. Certificants are further required to complete a CFP Board-Registered Education Program (or possess a qualifying professional credential), clear a personal and professional background check, and pass the CFP® Certification Examination, a ten-hour multiple-choice exam divided into three separate sessions. In order to maintain the certification, CFP® designees must also complete at least 30 hours of continuing education every two years on an ongoing basis.

The AIF® designation is a credential awarded by the Center for Fiduciary Studies, LLC, a division of Fiduciary360, to individuals who meet its professional, educational and ethical requirements, and demonstrate a commitment to fiduciary principles. The AIF® training curriculum culminates in a 60-question exam on the fiduciary practices, which requires a passing score of at least 75 percent. AIF® designees must agree to abide by the applicable code of ethics and complete six hours of continuing education each year on an ongoing basis.

The CPA, Certified Public Accountant and certification marks are public accounting credentials awarded by the State of Maryland to individuals who meet its education, examination, work experience, and ethics requirements. Eligible candidates must have at least a four-year college degree by a regional accredited college or university. The candidate must have an accounting degree or graduate degree equivalent approved by the board of no less than 150 semester hours with a concentration of specific accounting courses. The candidate shall also complete at least one year in regular and continuous public accountancy and is required to pass a four part comprehensive exam within an 18 month period. CPA certified candidates are required to maintain 80 hours of continued professional education every two years on an ongoing basis in accordance with the State of Maryland standards.

For additional information about each of these credentials, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.
