Professional Designation

John H Williams holds the professional designation of Certified Investment Management Analyst™ (“CIMA®”). The CIMA®, Certified Investment Management Analyst™ and certification marks are credentials awarded by Investments and Wealth Institute to individuals who meet its education, examination, work experience, and ethics requirements. Eligible candidates must have three years of financial services experience, a satisfactory record of ethical conduct determined by Investments & Wealth Institute Admissions Committee, and an educational component offered by one of the approved Registered Education Providers. The candidate also must pass the Qualification Examination and the Certification Examination. To maintain the certification, individuals are required to complete 40 hours of continuing education hours every two years.

John H Williams also holds the professional designation of Certified Financial Planner (“CFP®”). The CFP® is awarded by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. (“CFP Board”) to individuals who meet its education, examination, work experience, and ethics requirements. Eligible candidates must have at least a bachelor's degree (or its equivalent) in any discipline from an accredited college or university in order to obtain a CFP® certification. The candidate also must pass an examination, have three years of personal financial planning experience, and meet the CFP Board's ethical requirements. To maintain the certification, the CFP Board requires individuals to complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years and renew an agreement to be bound by its Standards of Professional Conduct.

For additional information about either of these credential, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.
