- importance of hand recall and how I see losing players email/submit me hands. Every CLP sub has the feature to email me a hand or question per week, keep it concise. I will be reading them more periodically

Email #1 14:20-- anonymous tipping and beat ability of small stakes tournies, 1-1 coaching, staking and pieces.

Email #2 28:40 -- Nate -- crushes overnight session then playing against OMC nits

Hand 1: 36:15 Bart post stream..

$5k effective. 7 handed 5-10-25. I believe this was against the same guy I tried to bluff with A6hh if u heard the pod last week. White kid want to be pro, prob small winner.

UTG limps, CO to $100, Hero SB 3! to $350 w Kd Jd, CO calls. $750

FLOP: Ts 8d 4s.. I bet $350, he calls (I wanted to be large here prob should be $500)? $1450

TURN: Qh I bet $1000, he calls. $3450

RIVER: 3c Hero? Is this a spot because I have a J in my hand and block J9, QJ I should be moving all-in vs say AK?

Hand 2: 50:45 Hand reading exercise from a hand not used in the call-in Joe Reeves submission

$200 max. $1/$2 No Limit Holdem 7 handed.

UTG ($50) raise to $10, Hero ($1100) calls Ah Ad. Fold to BB ($900) 3! bets to $40, UTG calls. Hero 4! bets to $120.
BB calls, UTG calls all-in for $10.

FLOP: Qs 7h 5d ($150/$140) BB checks. Hero bets $175, BB thinks its $75 and calls, doesn't know its $175 but they force him to keep the $75 in the pot so he calls the $175. IMPORTANT

TURN: Js ($150/$490) BB checks, Hero bets $250, BB calls.

RIVER: Ac ($150/$990) BB checks Hero call-in $350, BB calls. What hand does he have here?
