Small Stakes Guide

1. More thin value
2. Noticing sizing Tells
3. Double Barreling more often vs common weaker ranges
4. Betting more volume on scary boards that favor flat callers' range to bet fold
5. Overfolding later streets to raises
6. Betting more draws on dynamic boards
7. Leading out more with strong hands and fast playing when u field call
8. Rake considerations
9. More attacking of limped pots and field bettor's dynamic boards
10. The art of isoing
11. Not depending on opponent to bet their own hand
12. Exploitable flop cbet sizing for value... down-betting and up-betting based upon the composition of your own hand

13. Bluff catching upfront bets on high card disconnected rivers (after checking back the turn)

PLO Dbl Board Bomb Pots

--Number one rule is to not get involved with trips only on one board, especially low ranked trips where an overfull can easily be possible.

Hand 1:

Full Boat/trips

TOP: Q5J5dd

BOT: 9737c —

Bart's Hand: 9d 9h 4c 6c.

I bet small on flop a few call. Turn I bet $50 into $125 fold one all-in $60, BB jams he has 9724 other guy AA85 I scoop +$200

Hand 2:

TOP: Kc Tc 5h 4h 7h

BOT: 6h 4d 4c 2h Qc

Bart's Hand -- 6d 6s Jh 2d

BB Hand: T473

HJ: KKxx

$10 ante x 9 is $90. HJ bets $25 I call 3 others call including the BB.

TURN: BB leads out for $215, fold HJ calls, I pot to $1080.. BB calls allin for $700 so about $750 on the side.. RIVER guy checks I pot he folds.. I win side pot equity blasting
