

Episode 306+307: Ping's WSOP Main Event Day 1

(Part 1+2)

Main Event Notes:

- By far the best MTT in the world
- Early days especially good for cash game players (100-200BB average stack, all cEV decision)
- Lots of recreationals that are "shot taking"
 - Low bluff frequency
 - Avoiding big pots
 - Willing to make big folds
 - Show up at top of range often

My overall experience:

- Very good table draw with only one MTT pro to my left and the rest recs
- Very smooth, didn't get put into many tough spots and made a lot of hands to value bet
- Started 60k at 100/200, ended 164.5k for day 2 going into 400/800
