BAKER

With tapered proportions and a low profile, the Obelisk floor lamp by Thomas Pheasant for Baker adds a sculptural element to a room, crafted from cast brass in a textural Bronzino finish. Price upon request, available through Wakefield Design Center, wakefielddesigncenter.com, bakerfurniture.com.

REGINA ANDREW

Corrugated birch wood is handcrafted by artisans to create the textured bands on the graduated column of the Fishbone floor lamp. $938, reginaandrew.com.

HECTOR FINCH

The Cactus table lamp is an exclusive design for Hector Finch, handmade by artisans in Southern Italy. It is offered in five vibrant colors. $1,158, available through Harbinger NY, harbingerla.com, hectorfinch.com.

ARTERIORS

A handsome addition to a library or living room, the pivoting shade of the Tyson floor lamp is clad in white leather and lined in a white lacquer finish. The antique brass steel post is also wrapped in leather and white marble grounds the pharmacy-style fixture. $1,690, arteriorshome.com.

ARTEMEST

Resembling flowers swaying in the breeze, the floor lamp by Massimo Castagna for Exteta is composed of six spherical shades supported by flexed stems anchored to a rectangular plinth base. $6,340, available through Artemest, artemest.com.

BUNNY WILLIAMS HOME

Handpainted in warm brown tones, the Pheasant Feather lamp mimics traditional sancai or tri-colored glazes. The gourd-shaped silhouette sits on a gilded wedding-band base. $795, bunnywilliamshome.com.

FISHER WEISMAN

Adding a stylish note to a room, the Gilded Cage floor lamp is handcrafted in steel and papier mâché and includes a translucent, cream-colored linen shade. $3,745, fisherweisman.com.

WEST | OUT EAST

The Multi-Light floor lamp by Gubi is a contemporary classic by Danish architect Louis Weisdorf. The light can be aimed in many directions, up, down or sideways, depending on the need or mood. $1,799, westouteast.com.
