

COUNTRY LIFE

EVERY WEEK

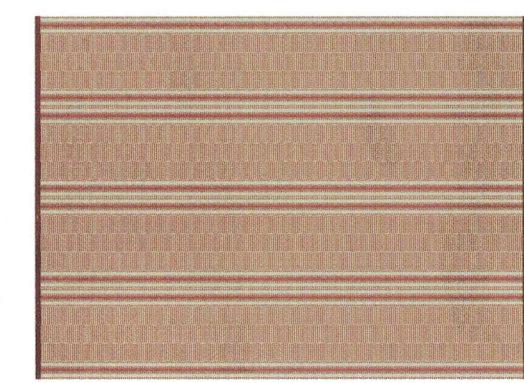

APRIL 12, 2023

Inspiring interiors

Designs for dogs and a magical treehouse
Why storage is more important than space
How to drink vermouth, serve tea and grow foxgloves

ISSUE: 15
PRINTED IN THE UK
£4.75
15
9 770045 885672

Interiors

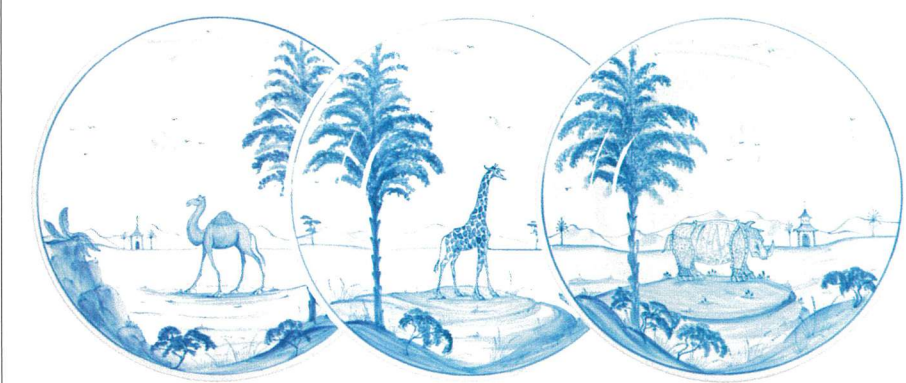

▲ Two's company
A joyful collection of contemporary woven, tufted and felted wool rugs, as well as cushions and upholstered furniture, have been produced as part of a collaboration between Roger Oates Design and A Rum Fellow, including the Mila Terracotta flatweave rug, £2,266 (01531 632718; www.rogeroates.com)

▲ Layered look
Button Back Chesterfield sofa in Lichen wool, from £2,495; Caned coffee table, £745; Blue Rose Ragini rug, from £925; Cushions, from £68 each; Woollen throws, from £94 each; Large Carved lamp bases, £245 each, with 16in Indian Red Sacha framed lampshades, £98 each; all Susie Watson Designs (0344 980 8185; www.susiewatsondesigns.co.uk)

▲ Up the wall
Interior-design supremo Nina Campbell has joined forces with Fired Earth to produce a range of tiles designed to elevate any space, including Rivage Indigo and Ivory glazed wall tiles, £75.20 per sq m (01295 587100; www.firedearth.com)

► Even light
The Leila triple pendant on a rod in Antique Brass, from £2,214, is designed to cast an even light across a table or kitchen island top, Hector Finch (020-7731 8886; www.hectorfinch.com)

▲ Animal magic
Inspired by English Delftware, each Blue and White tin-glazed earthenware plate is hand-made and hand painted by artists near Oxford for Sibyl Colefax & John Fowler. Six designs are available, each featuring an animal set within a landscape, and cost £294 each. 'More amusing and playful than the traditional floral patterns, three of these plates hung on the wall each side of a mirror over a fireplace could look terrific,' says Roger Jones, decorator and head of the antiques department (020-7518 8571; www.sibylcofax.com) →