

COUNTRY LIFE®

EVERY WEEK

JULY 7, 2021

Our spectacular coast

On a roll: why time and tide waits for no man
Goggle-eyed plovers and beach donkeys
Over the top: the £20 million coronation

Interiors

Light up my life

Designers are using a variety of patterns to transform lampshades. Amelia Thorpe selects the best

◀ Blue and white
The Samarkand Indigo Grid shade, from £50, is block-printed by hand on cotton voile, from Hector Finch (020-7731 8886; www.hectorfinch.com)

▶ Feather light
The 35cm (14in) Sloped Oval shade in Stone Feather-down cotton, £67.20, will introduce a touch of country charm, from Jim Lawrence (01473 826685; www.jim-lawrence.co.uk)

▲ Smart stripes
These 20in Warna Silk pleated lampshades, £195 each, echo the colour of the dining chairs to joyous effect, from OKA (0333 004 2042; www.oka.com)

▼ Spoilt for choice
Vaughan offers an impressive variety of lampshades, including those made in its own fabrics, from £239 for a 14in Pembroke shade. It also offers designs in plain silk and its Tribal range of cotton prints, as well as a custom-making service using your own trim and material (020-7349 4600; www.vaughandesigns.com) ▶

