

COUNTRY LIFE

EVERY WEEK

MARCH 22, 2023

Spring is busting out all over
How to get your garden blooming

Digging deep: the secret life of the mole
Le rosbif: which is best, French or English?
Verdi's Italy and Picasso's Spain

Interiors

▲ Tranquil time

Leading bathroom manufacturer Duravit suggests combining clean-lined fittings with subtle colours, natural materials and plants to create a sanctuary of calm in which to while away the hours: D-Neo built-in bath, £599, bath mixer, £199, hand shower with hose, £137 (01908 286680; www.duravit.co.uk)

◀ Colour play

Perfect for adding some elegant pizzazz, the Ezra vanity, £1,850, is shown with the hand-decorated Henrietta basin, £849, both from London Basin Company (020-8749 1267; www.londonbasincompany.com)

▼ Top tray

Complete the preparations for a blissful bathe by balancing a book and a glass of wine on this oak Bath Rack, £85, by Alfred Newall, available from Glassette (www.glassette.com)

Pick of the crop Bathroom wall lights

Chestnut wall light in distressed gilt lacquer, £1,668, Charles Edwards (020-7736 8490; www.charlesedwards.com)

Michael Half Moon lantern, small, in Antique Brass, £1,026, Hector Finch (020-7731 8886; www.hectorfinch.com)

Seaton Storm wall light, £575, Vaughan (020-7349 4600; www.vaughandesigns.com)

