BRANCHING OUT

Mimicking the giant flowerheads of the plant it is named for, Dutch designer Bertjan Pot's Heracleum III Linear ceiling fixture is a natural beauty above a kitchen island or dining table. $4,211 (in nickel, shown), at Moooi, 36 E. 31st St., NYC, 646-396-0455, moooi.com.

TIERS OF JOY

Made of gilded steel and papier-mâché by craftsmen in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico, Fisher Weisman's three-tiered Constellation chandelier is dressed to impress. $17,900, at Profiles, NYDC, 200 Lexington Ave., Ste. 1211, NYC, 212-689-6903, profilesny.com, fisherweisman.com.

BRIGHT IDEA

Use Fermob's cheery, wireless Apló lamp as a portable LED light source wherever you need it—even as a flashlight after a late-night summer party on the beach. Available in six colors (shown: Honey). $143, NYDC, 200 Lexington Ave., Ste. 414, NYC, 212-651-4389, fermobusa.com.

BACK IN THE SADDLE

Comprising sumptuous leather, brushed brass hardware, and a dimmable LED bulb, L'Aviva Home's new Saddle fixtures recall the equestrian heritage of Colombia's historic coffee-growing culture. Capa pendant, $2,375, 145 Grand St., NYC, 212-625-9605, lavivahome.com.

GLOBAL APPEAL

Artisans in India painstakingly hand-cut the lustrous facets on the Hammered Glass Globe fixture from Hector Finch, an exquisite exercise in master craftsmanship. $1,134 (small) and $1,506 (large), at Harbinger, NYDC, 200 Lexington Ave., Ste. 601, NYC, 646-737-7910, harbingerla.com.

FARMHOUSE FRESH

California- and East Hampton-based decorator Jeffrey Alan Marks joined forces with Progress Lighting to dream up the retro-chic Edgecliff pendant, which pays homage to corrugated-metal farm buildings of yore. $1,485, at Ferguson Bath, Kitchen & Lighting Gallery, A&D, 150 E. 58th St., Ste. 400, NYC, 212-688-5990, fergusonsbathrooms.com, bubbell.com.
