

WHERE EXCEPTIONAL
TASTE LIVES

VERANDA

VOLUME 39
ISSUE 6

Evening Magic

HOW LIGHTING
CHANGES
EVERYTHING

Beautiful Discoveries

A sheet-brass shade with pretty pleating is rooted in the handwrought spirit of the Vienna Secession art movement.
Simone wall light,
Hector Finch

Architect Rachel Shillander brings playful scalloped edges to a metal torchiere crafted of raw copper.
Rachel Shillander
Scalloped torchiere,
The Future Perfect

A multilayered escape plan: handblown glasswork that summons the blue-green swells of Italy's dreamy Lido Beaches.
Vetro Di Mare chandelier,
Ward + Gray

Light filtered through this portable lamp's bevel-cut crystal base simulates the sun's rays streaming through a forest canopy.
Noé Duchaufour-Lawrance Folla portable lamp,
Saint-Louis

Stacked glass bubbles recall watery journeys down Venice's canals, while an interior brass spiral mimics rippling water.
Marea pendant, Ochre

Light ascends from a brass concave LED base, casting a mesmerizing glow through a cylinder of K9 crystal.
Sean Lavín Beryl 17 tapered table lamp,
Visual Comfort & Co.

With a deep turquoise glazed finish speckled with sand, this jewel-like shell sconce could have been plucked straight from the Med.
Scallop wall light,
Porta Romana

Alight with fine gilt trim, this polished mahogany wall lantern tips its cap—and a classical crest—to its stately Georgian predecessors.
Tonbridge wall lantern,
Sibyl Colefax & John Fowler

The ultra-sleek sconce with leather inlay rotates at 15-degree intervals to light artwork, ceilings, or simply the task at hand.
Swivel double wall sconce,
Articolo Studios