HECTOR FINCH

LIGHTING

MALA TABLE LAMP, LARGE, AMETHYST, HONEYCOMB

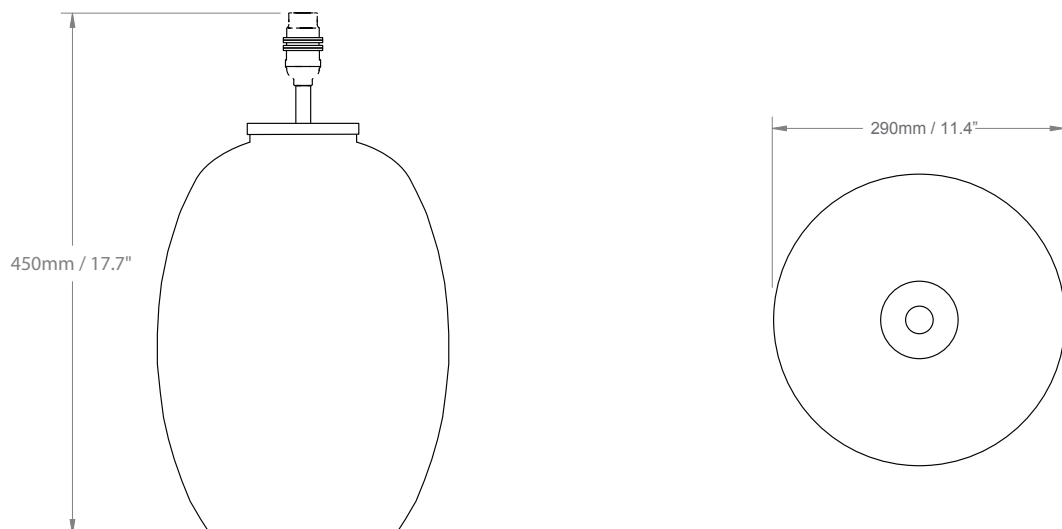

Made for Hector Finch in the same factory in India as our previous range, the Bambolas, the quality and depth of colour is a result of the glass being blown in a double layer, using two different colours so the texture comes from cutting through the dark layer to the lighter underneath.

CLEANING & MAINTENANCE

Metalwork - use a soft, dry cloth

Shade - wipe gently with a dry cloth or dust lightly with a feather duster. Repeat regularly to prevent build up of dust. Regular cleaning will prevent the possibility of dust becoming ingrained. DO NOT let water or moisture near the shade.
