THE ANNUAL MEETING PLACE FOR THE GLOBAL PRIVATE CREDIT COMMUNITY

GLOBAL PRIVATE CREDIT

5th June 2024 | Madinat Jumeirah, Dubai

CONNECTING MENA ALLOCATORS, MANAGERS, AND BORROWERS WITH THE GLOBAL PRIVATE CREDIT MARKET

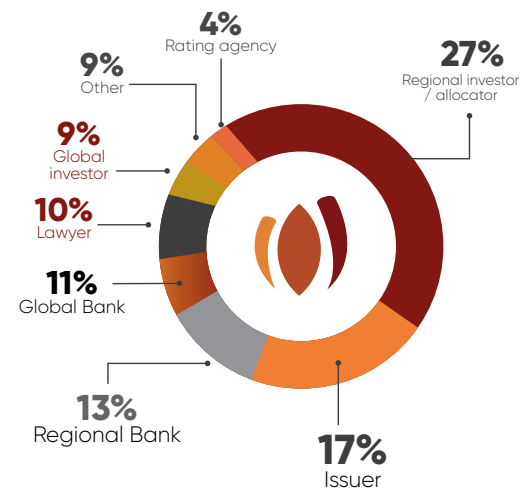

- 278 senior industry leaders came together to explore current challenges and trends in the global private credit markets. It provided the perfect platform to drive this global asset class in 2024 and beyond.
- This networking rich environment created a platform for the leading global pension funds, investment companies, SWFs, family offices, bank treasury teams and international private credit managers to come together and gain insight into market's strategic outlook, examine returns on real estate and infrastructure debt and provide insights on how to deploy capital successful, regionally and internationally.

KEY INSIGHTS: AUDIENCE ENGAGEMENT

GLOBAL PRIVATE CREDIT

5th June 2024 | Madinat Jumeirah, Dubai

TOP POLL QUESTIONS

WHICH OF THE FOLLOWING POSES THE GREATEST MACRO-ECONOMIC RISK TO YOUR INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO?

WHICH ASSET CLASSES DO YOU EXPECT TO HAVE THE HIGHEST TOTAL RETURN IN THE NEXT 12 MONTHS?

TOP AUDIENCE QUESTIONS

- ✓ From a borrower's perspective, what "flexibility" does private credit offer (distinct from traditional sources of debt)?
- ✓ Are we expecting EM Private Credit (ex China) to replicate the growth experienced in developed countries?
- ✓ How large is the private credit market in the GCC?
- ✓ Any thoughts on regulators' (bank regulators or capital markets) view on private credit? Are there specific asks they wish to see from the industry?
- ✓ Before 2008, CDOs were in high demand and were supposed very safe. What is the difference with CLOs and BDCs today?
- ✓ Why has EM private equity returns lagged below their targets, with the exception of tech based plays?
- ✓ Looking more regionally, can private credit offer competitive financing to GCC corporates? What needs to happen to encourage more financing in the region?
