

GLOBAL FREE LIBRARY

A completely FREE online collection of stories that celebrate the world's diversity.

Chapter One is helping students become proficient and passionate life-long readers.

Our Global Free Library includes beautifully written stories about diversity, equity, and inclusion, immigrant experiences, people with disabilities, environmental justice, gender equality, and Indigenous/First Nations.

Little Miss Flint

Do you have clean water to drink? Well, Mari's city of Flint, Michigan does not. The drinking water got polluted. When Mari was eight, she wrote President Obama a letter telling about the water crisis. She became famous and still fights for clean water for her community to this day.
