REETING WORDS

EIS school gives parents a real choice and offer a full and balanced curriculum based on the National Curriculum of England, but enhanced to meet the needs of the expatriate Population. Standards are high, and we are flexible and family-friendly. With over 40 nationalities, EIS is Moscow in miniature.

Teaching is in English, with Russian taught as both first and second language. Classes are kept small, so the teaching is personal. Art, music, drama and sport are vital parts of the curriculum.

We provide a caring and friendly atmosphere. Our parents often say it is more like a large family than a school. EIS is a unique school in Moscow, which is accredited both by Council of International Schools (CIS) and COBIS, and that shows the level of educational standards delivering by school. EIS also the only school in Russia, which is offering The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award.

WESTERN ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT OF MOSCOW

The districts located in a prestigious district of Moscow in the western administrative district with well-developed infrastructure and transport, and about a quarter of its territory is occupied by green spaces.

It is suitable for those who value aesthetics and greenery. The district's calling card is the main building of Lomonosov Moscow State University, one of the legendary Stalinist skyscrapers. There are many authentic historical buildings and modern buildings, on its northern border are the Botanical Garden and the Great Lawn of Moscow State University. Along the western part runs the Setun River Valley nature reserve zone with the Ramenka River. The area also has the All-Russian Academy of Foreign Trade and the famous embassy town on Mosfilmovskaya Street. The cultural and sports infrastructure is actively developing.

Numerous institutes and the university were built in many areas of the district during the Soviet era, causing nearby houses to serve as homes for their employees: university professors, researchers, and students.
