

Day 1 – Friday, 23 April 2021: Epilepsy

- 9:00 Registration
- 9:15 Welcome & introduction
Chair: Joela Mathews, Neuroscience Pharmacist, Barts Health NHS Trust
& Rachel Dorsey-Campbell, Neuroscience Pharmacist, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust
- 9:30 What are seizures and epilepsy? – definitions, including provoked/symptomatic seizures, introduction to the terminology
Dr Richard Davenport, Consultant Neurologist, NHS Lothian - Virtual
- 10:15 How to diagnose and investigate suspected epilepsy
Dr Richard Davenport - Virtual
- 11:00 Refreshment break
- 11:15 Treatment options in epilepsy – when, what drug, how long for with examples of case studies. How to choose the right drug for the right person, branded vs generic prescribing, special situations
Dr Shona Scott, Consultant Neurologist, NHS Lothian - Virtual
- 12:45 Lunch
- 13:45 Epilepsy and women
Dr Shona Scott - Virtual
- 14:45 Role of pharmacy, future treatment targets and horizon scanning – including shared care
Joela Mathews
- 15:45 Meeting Close

Webinar 18 May - 18:00 - 19:30

Spinal muscular atrophy (SMA)

Dr Min Ong, Paediatric Neurology Consultant, Sheffield Children's NHS Foundation Trust,
Natasha Hoyle, Pharmacist, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust,
Joela Mathews, Neuroscience Pharmacist, Barts Health NHS Trust,
Rachel Dorsey-Campbell, Neuroscience Pharmacist, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust