

Neurology Academy surveyed neurological healthcare professionals in the UK about how their MS and Parkinson's services have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Out of 133 respondents, 108 are based in England, 15 in Scotland, 8 in Wales and 2 in Northern Ireland.

PERCEPTIONS: how respondents feel COVID-19 has impacted their service

34%
had staff
off sick

54%
had staff
redeployed from their service

77%
had to cancel clinics

53%
had to delay
treatments

20%
experienced
poor
communication

19%
received
contradictory
advice

ACTIONS: how respondents have begun to address some of the challenges

