

Visit Practicalities: The Greater Manchester Police Museum

Before your visit

Teacher pre-visits

If you would like to make a pre-visit to the Museum, please contact the bookings team at education@nationaljusticemuseum.org.uk (please note pre-visits can be done Monday-Thursday only)

Risk assessments

Risk assessments for the Greater Manchester Police Museum are available on our website: Risk Assessments

Supervision

Primary Schools - Admission for staff is free of charge and we require as many staff as possible to accompany the group. We need at least one adult for every seven pupils.

Secondary schools and colleges - We require at least two members of staff for every group of 30. One teacher for every 10 pupils booked will be admitted free of charge.

Any teachers over the suggested quota will be charged the same price as the students. Any carers/teaching assistants who are accompanying individuals with SEN will be admitted for free.

Lunchrooms

A lunch space for pupils to eat a packed lunch and store bags will be provided on the day

Gift shop

The museum has a gift shop stocking 'pocket money' souvenirs on site which pupils can visit.

Directions

The museum is based in the Northern Quarter at 57a Newton Street, Manchester inside a Victorian police station.

Coach parking

The museum has no parking for coaches. However nearby parking for coaches in Manchester can be viewed by following the link:

Coach parking

Minibus parking

The museum does have parking for a minibus however this must be booked in advance by contacting the education team at education@nationaljusticemuseum.org.uk

Before the visit checklist

- Have you photocopied your resources to bring on the day?
- Have you allocated roles for the courtroom workshop?
- Have you split students into separate groups as per the timetable? (if applicable)
- Does the timetable we have proposed match up with your travel arrangements?
- Have you made us aware of any SEN pupils attending?

During your visit

What do I do when I arrive?

On arrival to the museum please ring the doorbell where a member of staff will let you into the building.

What should I do if I think we might be late / early?

If you anticipate that you will arrive earlier or later than expected, we would be grateful if you could notify the Learning Manager, Kath Downs, in the first instance, by calling 07912000493.

If you cannot reach Kath, please contact the museum by calling the main reception desk on 0115 9520555, extension 200.

How do we get from one activity to the next?

A facilitator will be with your group for the duration of the visit.

Post-visit

If you would like to discuss your visit please email our Learning Manager, Kath Downs, via e-mail: kath.downs@nationaljusticemuseum.org.uk, who will then be more than happy to arrange a call with you.

If you would like to book another visit, please contact our Bookings Team via e-mail learning@nationaljusticemuseum.org.uk or alternatively you can call on 0115 9520555 extension 212.

If you took any photographs on your visit or would like to share any positive feedback, we would love you to do so on our social media outlets:

Instagram and Tiktok: @justicemuseum

Facebook: National Justice Museum

Twitter/X: @justicemuseum and @njmlearning