

SOVA Assessment Limited Privacy Notice (Candidates)

This Privacy Notice is made available for the benefit of all candidates and individuals who upload personal data and other information to the online assessment tool and related services which are provided by Sova Assessment Limited (Sova Assessment Tools). The Sova Assessment Tools are provided on behalf of an employer, potential employer or other client organisation which has decided to use the Sova Assessment Tools (Client Organisation) as part of a particular recruitment campaign or similar project.

For the purpose of this Privacy Notice, a candidate or individual refers to any person who is either seeking employment with a Client Organisation; or is in the process of going through a recruitment or development campaign, or similar project.

1. Introduction

Sova Assessment is committed to acting in compliance with current data protection legislation including the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (Data Protection Legislation), and therefore, to protecting your privacy.

This Privacy Notice sets out how we process data, and includes:

- our status, for the purposes of Data Protection Legislation
- the scope and who the notice covers in terms of personal data
- who we are and who to contact
- the personal data that we collect and hold on you
- how we collect this data
- how we store and use personal data
- our legal bases for processing your personal data
- information on transfers to third parties and international transfers
- your rights as a data subject

2. We act as Data Processor on behalf of the Client Organisation

For the purpose of Data Protection Legislation, Sova Assessment acts as a data processor in relation to the processing of a candidate's personal data. This means that Sova processes your personal data on the instructions of the Client Organisation (i.e. the employer or potential employer you are connected with) which has commissioned the use of the Sova Assessment Tools.

The Client Organisation is the data controller for the purpose of Data Protection Legislation. Further information regarding the Client Organisation's collection and processing of your personal data will be contained in the Client Organisation's Privacy Notice.

3. Scope

This Privacy Notice is provided for the benefit of all candidates whose personal data is collected via self-input on the Sova Assessment Tools, where feedback is provided following completion of an online assessment, and/or following participation in any type of recruitment or development process; or similar project. The scope also covers all candidates whose personal data is collected via the Client Organisation (the employer or potential employer you are connected with) and provided to us, in line with the requirements of Data Protection Legislation.

4. Who we are and who to contact

4.1 Who we are

We are Sova Assessment Limited, a company registered in England whose registered office is at Sterling House, 19/23 High Street, Kidlington, Oxfordshire, England, OX5 2DH.

We are online assessment specialists whose aim is to help employers make accurate and informed decisions; and ensure assessments deliver the best possible experience for candidates. We provide digital assessment solutions, talent management consultancy services alongside a range of bespoke training solutions.

4.2 Responsibilities

At Sova Assessment we have a Data Protection Manager who is responsible within our business for ensuring that this notice is made available to candidates prior to Sova Assessment collecting/processing their personal data.

Our Data Protection Manager can be contacted directly here (although we would recommend that you contact the Client Organisation – as the data controller - in the first instance, if you have any questions regarding your personal data):

- compliance@sovaassessment.com
- 0207 947 4330

Sova Assessment has contracted the services of GRCI Law to act as its Data Protection Officer (DPO). Accordingly, Sova Assessment will seek advice, guidance and input from the DPO where necessary.

9. Consent

Consent is required for Sova Assessment to process the special category data referred to above. Such consent is obtained by the Client Organisation (the employer/potential employer you are connected with) at the point that you agree to the use of the Sova Assessment Tool prior to you entering any information to such tool.

You may withdraw consent to our processing of special category data at any time by contacting the Client Organisation (the employer/potential employer you are connected with) to let them know that your consent is withdrawn. The process by which you should contact the Client Organisation may be found in the Privacy Notice of the Client Organisation.

10. Disclosure

Sova Assessment may share your data with third parties and for the purposes set out below:

Subsidiaries of Sova Assessment

- Any of our subsidiaries for research and development purposes, for example; to produce psychometric norms and validity data and/or to help produce our psychometric manuals. In this regard, data is only shared in anonymous form.

Third parties (acting as sub-processors)

- Associates who provide services on our behalf to enable us to deliver the Sova Assessment Tools (and related services);
- Suppliers who provide IT, system administration and platform services to us, as well as suppliers providing any other services connected to the service we provide.

As required by Data Protection Legislation, any sharing of personal data is subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations and safeguards, as per the below;

- relevant contractual clauses are in operation to ensure third party due diligence in relation to data security
- third party processes are checked to ensure appropriate safeguards are adopted

11. International transfers of personal data

Where personal data is transferred outside the UK and the EEA (which includes all EU countries plus Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway), we take all reasonably necessary measures to ensure that the protection offered by the GDPR will travel with the data and, that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Notice and the requirements of Data Protection Legislation. This means that when exporting data abroad, we will ensure one of the following measures are adhered to:

- the non-UK/non-EU country's protections are deemed adequate by the EU.
- relevant contractual clauses are in operation to ensure third party due diligence in relation to data security
- third party processes are checked to ensure appropriate safeguards are adopted
- specific grounds for the transfer (derogations) such as the consent of the individual are applicable

12. Retention period

Sova Assessment will process personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which the data was collected, as agreed with the Client Organisation (the employer/potential employer you are connected with). For further information, please refer to the Client Organisation's Privacy Notice.

Unless Sova is otherwise directed by the Client Organisation, all candidate personal data collected in Sova's systems will be anonymised for Sova's purposes 6 months after it is submitted and the 'digital key' to de-anonymise the personal data will be given to the Client Organisation. The digital key will then be permanently erased within Sova's systems.

Once anonymised, data may continue to be used by Sova for developing new norms and developing Sova's software and services. This anonymised data may continue to be used indefinitely by Sova.

If you require further information on specific retention periods, please contact us (see section 4.2 for how to contact us).

13. Automated Decision-Making

Automated decision-making means making decisions about you using no human involvement. The products and services that Sova Assessment provide to you, on behalf of our clients (the employer/potential employer you are connected with) are usually not used in isolation in the recruitment or development process, but rather are used to help employers make accurate and informed decisions.

Where a Client Organisation (the employer/potential employer you are connected with) uses the Sova Assessment Tools in such a manner that a decision is taken in relation to you solely on the basis of your interaction with the Sova Assessment Tools, such use will either be on the basis that this is necessary for entering into, or performance of, a contract between the Client Organisation and you, or on the grounds of your explicit consent. In such cases, under Data Protection Legislation you have various rights in relation to such processing, including the right to object and the right to obtain human intervention on the part of the Client Organisation, to express your point of view and to contest the decision. Please contact the Client Organisation (the employer/potential employer you are connected with) if you have any questions on the use of Automated decision-making in this situation.

14. How we keep your data secure

Sova Assessment are committed to ensuring the security of your data. As the data processor, we ensure that all necessary steps are taken to protect against the potential loss, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, the personal data we process or use. Sova Assessment adopts the following safeguards to ensure the security of your data:

- candidate data will be anonymised 6 months after it is submitted to Sova's systems, unless otherwise directed by the Client Organisation you are connected with (please see section 12, above);
- access to personal data is restricted to authorised individuals;
- secure encryption policies are in operation;
- all the provisions of ISO 27001 certification.

15. Your rights as a data subject

At any point while we are in possession of or processing your personal data, you, the data subject, have the following rights:

- Right of access – you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to correct data that we hold about you that is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – in certain circumstances you can ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records.
- Right to restriction of processing – where certain conditions apply to have a right to restrict the processing.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation in certain situations.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as direct marketing.
- Right to object to automated processing, including profiling.
- Right to judicial review: in the event that we refuse your request under rights of access, we will provide you with a reason as to why. You have the right to complain as outlined in clause 17 below.

You can exercise your right by contacting us at the following email address – compliance@sovaassessment.com

All of the above requests will be forwarded on to the Client Organisation, acting as a data Controller or, should there be a third party involved (as stated in 10 above) in the processing of your personal data.

16. Changes

We may update and vary this Privacy Notice from time to time. Any updates will be published on our website

17. Complaints

In the event that you wish to make a complaint about how your personal data is being processed by Sova Assessment (or third parties as described in 10 above), or how your complaint has been handled, you have the right to lodge a complaint directly with the supervisory authority and Sova Assessment's Data Protection Manager.

Sova Assessment has contracted the services of GRCI Law to act as its Data Protection Officer (DPO). Accordingly, Sova Assessment will seek advice, guidance and input from the DPO where necessary.
