

04.04.2024

Anatolia Porselen Seramik A.Ş., carries out porcelain, ceramic, and sintered stone design and production activities that add value to life with the inspiration it takes from nature. Anatolia is committed to:

- Ensure sustainable growth in global markets with an innovative approach by seeking excellence,
- Lead the sector by producing innovative products beyond customer needs and expectations,
- Comply with national and international legal and other requirements in all our activities,
- To ensure sustainable resource use and prevent environmental pollution by being aware of our environmental responsibility towards the ecosystem,
- To create a healthy and safe working environment by managing the risks that will cause occupational accidents and occupational diseases with our proactive working culture to prevent injuries and health deterioration,
- Our infrastructure with renewable energy resources and our projects that take into account energy efficiency and our total fight against climate change carried out globally,
- To fulfill our social responsibility with the participation of our internal and external stakeholders by observing ethical values,
- We undertake to continuously develop and improve the performance of the Management Systems we implement by providing the necessary information and resources.

On Behalf of All Employees,

Ayhan Doğan
General Manager

ANATOLIA PORSELEN SERAMİK A.Ş.
HASAN TAHSİN V.D. 000 074 8894