Updates to this Guide

While every effort is made by our authors to ensure the accuracy of guidebooks as they go to print, changes can occur during the lifetime of an edition. Any updates that we know of for this guide will be on the Cicerone website (www.cicerone.co.uk/580/updates), so please check before planning your trip. We also advise that you check information about such things as transport, accommodation and shops locally. Even rights of way can be altered over time. We are always grateful for information about any discrepancies between a guidebook and the facts on the ground, sent by email to updates@cicerone.co.uk or by post to Cicerone, Juniper House, Murley Moss, Oxenholme Road, Kendal, LA9 7RL.

Front cover: Darwen Tower (Walks 13 and 14)

leads down to the site of the ruined Hollinshead Hall and its well (see panel).

Retreat from the ruins for a short distance, back the way you came. Ignore two obvious gate pillars on the right and continue a little farther to a clear path on the right marked by a Peak and Northern Footpath Society signpost (No. 538) indicating the way to Darwen Moor. Take this path, muddy in
