

THACKRAY WILLIAMS
JOB DESCRIPTION

Position: Company Commercial Dispute Solicitor
Location: London
Reports to: Head of Dispute Resolution

As part of our specialist Litigation Team this is a fee earning role requiring a proven track record in providing quality legal advice and assistance to clients along with being commercially astute. This role will ideally suit a lawyer with a solid foundation in corporate and commercial disputes.

This is a London based role where the candidate will be expected to build a caseload working alongside our Corporate Commercial partners based in Kent and London. It is therefore essential that the successful candidate has an established reputation and referral contact base. With that in mind, a client following will be expected and would be a distinct advantage. The candidate will be a self-starter, confident in business development and networking.

With the ability to handle a busy caseload the role holder will need to demonstrate experience in company commercial dispute matters which might include

- Contractual disputes
- Shareholder disputes
- Disputes between Directors or Partners
- Regulatory Disputes
- Intellectual Property Disputes
- Insolvency issues
- Construction and Planning Disputes

The role holder will be required to effectively manage cases through to successful resolution with minimum supervision and will work closely with our corporate and commercial teams in building a caseload. The ability to develop existing and new client relationships is a must. Advice given must be accurate and comprehensive and in line with the Firm's risk management procedures.

The department is growing and is an integral part of the future plans for Thackray Williams. As such enthusiasm for business development and marketing is a must, in line with the strategic business plans of the department and the wider firm.

Having a collegiate and collaborative approach to the team and the wider firm is also important.

Main Duties and Responsibilities of the Role

- Running and managing own files, delegating to trainees and legal assistants as appropriate;
- Progress instructions in accordance with established procedures of both good practice and the firm's quality system and risk management processes
- Be fully involved in marketing activities and maintain appropriate professional relationships with referrers and clients
- Interact directly with clients, manage their expectations and meet their deadlines;
- Work in a cross-disciplinary way with other departments within the firm and on a cross-referral basis (promoting the services of teams from across the firm whenever the opportunity arises)
- Introduce new clients to the firm
- Identify and attend appropriate networking opportunities
- Effective financial file management in conjunction with the Head of Department, complying with the SRA accounts rules
- Organise and maintain tidy and accurate files both in hard copy and electronically
- Play an active role within the team and support other team members during busy times
- Take responsibility for delegated work, ask for guidance in respect of matters that are unclear and report errors which need to be resolved
- Involve support staff in an effective way
- Adopt knowledge-sharing behaviours at team, departmental and firm level
- Comply with the requirements of the SRA's Continuing Competence Statement and identify specific training needs
- Attend appropriate informal and formal training
- Promote the firm's core values and branding
- Undertake such duties and tasks that are appropriate for the role of Solicitor such as changes in information systems and new technology as may reasonably be required
