SUMMER ARTS CAMP

DANCE

THEATER

VISUAL ARTS

Summer Arts Camp is back in full swing at The Phipps with a variety of offerings over seven fun-filled and creative weeks. Students ages 3 and over can immerse themselves in dance, theater, or visual arts classes that develop skills, grow the imagination, and provide an enjoyable social activity.

Mix and match different art forms, pick and choose class times across mornings, afternoons, and weeks to create your own, unique Summer Arts Camp experience.

STATEMENT OF INCLUSION

The Phipps Center embraces equity, diversity, and inclusion as core beliefs and values. We strive to create and foster an environment of respect, where everyone's creative spirit is supported and celebrated, no matter their race, ethnicity, creed, color, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, socio-economic status, religion, age, gender, or gender identity.

We, at The Phipps, will endeavor to maintain an equitable, diverse, inclusive, and accessible organization by actively addressing barriers, exclusions, and biases. We will honor differences to make The Phipps a place in which each unique person can collaborate, create, and celebrate with others.

2 WAYS TO REGISTER FOR SUMMER ARTS CAMP:

Purchase online at ThePhipps.org (available 24/7)

Or call us at 715.386.2305 (M – F, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.)

PLEASE READ THESE REGISTRATION AND CANCELLATION POLICIES CAREFULLY.

Registrations are made in the order they are received and must be accompanied by payment to be valid.

If a class must be cancelled because of insufficient enrollment, the office will phone students prior to the first day of class and a full refund will be given. If a student cancels a class prior to five working days before the first class meeting, tuition will be refunded at 100 percent less a $5 administrative fee.

No refunds will be issued within 5 working days prior to the first class meeting. However, transfers to other classes will be honored at 100 percent credit if class minimums and maximums are not affected. Tuition is not prorated for missed classes.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited number of scholarships are available for students who would not otherwise be able to attend classes because of a lack of funds. Please inquire with Phipps staff if you are in need of assistance.

WHAT TO WEAR AND BRING TO CAMP

Wear comfortable attire to be able to move and play and dress to get messy, some art materials may stain. Please note specific attire requirements in the class descriptions. The Phipps is not responsible for clothing that is damaged in classes.

Bring a nut-free snack and a beverage to all classes that run two hours or longer.

PLEASE NOTE

Students must not be left unattended while at The Phipps. Students enrolled in both a morning and afternoon class receive free supervision over the lunch hour. Pre-registration is required. Students must be checked in and out by an adult each day.

PURCHASE WITH CONFIDENCE

If a class is cancelled or you are unable to attend due to COVID, we will work with you to exchange your class or offer a refund or credit to your account.

COVID PROTOCOLS

Please review anticipated protocols for Summer Arts Camps.

1. Masks are optional, we encourage masks for anyone who prefers to wear one.
2. Vaccinations are strongly recommended but not required for participation.
3. Any participant or guest who is ill or showing symptoms should not attend any programs unless cleared by a physician.
4. Practice social distancing and frequent hand washing.
5. The Phipps will maintain enhanced cleaning efforts and air flow throughout the building.

The Phipps reserves the right to update COVID protocols based on COVID status within the community and guidance from our local medical and government agencies.

Dance Instructors

BETSY ANDERSON has been dancing at The Phipps for 11 years. She has danced many styles, but her favorite is jazz. She has also choreographed for the Hudson high school swing choir and musical and she has assisted with dance classes at The Phipps for three years. She can't wait to dance with you!

LETA ANDERSON began dancing at the age of five, training in tap, jazz, lyrical, modern, ballet, and pointe at Short Dance Studios and St. Croix Ballet. She has been dancing professionally since graduating high school, performing with Continental Ballet, St. Paul Ballet, Ballet Minnesota, Metropolitan Ballet, and Minneapolis Ballet Dancers. Leta has performed in the classical ballets of the Nutcracker, Cinderella, Coppelia, Giselle, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Paquita, Sleeping Beauty, Swan Lake, and Le Sylphide, as well as some contemporary works, including An American in Paris. Leta is committed to sharing her passion for dance with her students while helping them to attain the highest level of technique.

KEEGAN FOSTER is from Hudson, WI and is currently a student at University of Minnesota-Duluth, studying music (vocal performance) and business. She is active in the dance program and vocal music programs at UMD. She danced at The Phipps Center for the Arts for fifteen years in the styles of tap, ballet, jazz, contemporary, modern, musical theater, and hip hop. She was an assistant dance teacher for five years with Stephanie Campbell, teaching pre-ballet and tap classes. Keegan also taught her own classes in the styles of tap and hip hop for two years. She was a member of The Phipps Dance Company for five years and was captain during her senior year. Keegan has many years of performing experience in both dance and musical theater settings, and is looking forward to teaching your child!

GRETA LEWIS has been a dance instructor for 15 years. She has taught at The Phipps since 2015 and is one of the directors of The Phipps Junior Dance Company. Greta has a B.S. in Elementary Education and minor in Dance Education from University of Wisconsin-River Falls. In 2019 she served as a writer for the Wisconsin Department of Education state dance education standards. She has performed as a company member of The Phipps Dance Theater for eight seasons. In addition to teaching dance, Greta has been a second grade teacher in the Hudson School District. She is looking forward to another wonderful season of dance at The Phipps!

BRE POLIAK started her dance career in 1995 with the Prescott Dance Team.
