A very warm Welcome

This is an incredibly exciting moment for the organisation with the arrival of our new Executive Director, Rosa Corbishley. Rosa joins us from Bristol Beacon and is no stranger to Salisbury, having previously worked as Communications and Development Manager at Salisbury International Arts Festival.

Meanwhile on stage we have two terrific "made in Salisbury" productions to look forward to. In February we will be co-producing a brand-new production of John Buchan's brilliant thriller The 39 Steps. This hilarious theatrical tour de force sees four actors playing one hundred and thirty-nine roles. Not to be missed. Following this, we are delighted to welcome back writers Duncan Abel and Rachel Wagstaff, the team behind The Girl on the Train, for their adaptation of Dan Brown's The Da Vinci Code. Another brilliant thriller, this epic tale of mystery and cryptic clues will be sure to keep audiences on the edge of their seats.

Alongside our own work we have a packed programme of visiting theatre, comedy and music at both the Playhouse and Arts Centre. Ranging from Treasure Island by the fantastic Le Navet Bete to comedy from Zoe Lyons and Richard Herring, there is something for everyone.

We hope you enjoy looking through the brochure. Rosa and I look forward to welcoming you to a Wiltshire Creative event soon.

Sleeping Beauty

Written by Plected, Brown & Wilsher

Saturday 30 November 2024 –
Sunday 12 January 2025 | Various times

Tickets from £18

Ages 4+ | S G

Join us at Salisbury Playhouse this Christmas for a magical family pantomime extravaganza! With dazzling dances, laugh-out-loud hilarity and sparkling songs from our live band, it promises pure festive joy for all the family!

Embark on an unforgettable adventure as Princess Stella falls under the wicked curse of evil Fairy Badflix, doomed to sleep for a hundred years. Can her loyal friends and family break the spell? Will the forces of good triumph over evil? And is there a charming prince in Salisburyshire ready to save the day?

This classic tale will be reimagined by the writers of last year's spectacular panto, Dick Whittington, nominated for Best Pantomime at the 2024 UK Pantomime Association Awards.

Old Time Sailors

Wednesday 23 April | 7.30pm

Tickets from £24

A night of footstomping, dancing and singing! You will be sailing back to the 19th century for an immersive experience of traditional seafaring music performed in a way you have never seen before. Sing and dance along like a drunken sailor as the band perform centuries-old folk and shanty songs. Fancy dress is encouraged, so pull out your best seafaring garments, me hearties, and join the festivities!

You're Bard!

Thursday 1 May | 7.30pm

Tickets from £20

Ages 10+

Shakespeare like you've never seen before. Four actors. Four Shakespeare shows. Endless possibilities.

You – the audience – decide everything, from the play to the performance style. Even which actor plays which part. This hilarious, unpredictable new show, featuring West End actors, promises an unforgettable evening.

Rock & Roll I Here To Stay: The Boulevards

Friday 2 May | 7.30pm

Tickets from £18

The Boulevards present: Rock & Roll Is Here To Stay – a celebration of unforgettable, enduring hits from the 1950s and 1960s, performed live!

From Elvis to Buddy, Chuck Berry to Eddie Cochran, Little Richard to Cliff Richard, The Boulevards will take you back to the golden age of rock and roll, with an authentic performance of some of the greatest songs of all time. Expect fun, expect energy, expect feel-good tunes exactly as they should be played.

George Lewis: The Best Thing You'll Ever Do

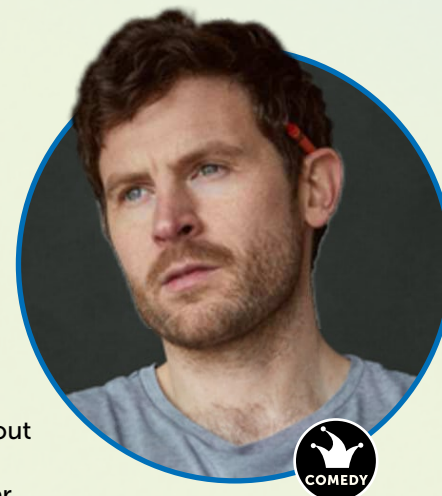

Saturday 3 May | 7.30pm

Tickets from £18

Ages 14+

Described as 'the funniest dad on Instagram', stand-up comedian George has racked up hundreds of millions of views for his hilarious online sketches about the big things in life, like owning an air fryer, watching a David Beckham documentary, and the excruciating experience of trying to do a jigsaw with your kid.

Now he's bringing his brand-new stand-up show to the stage. It won't just be about parenting, though, because he has done loads this year. He's bought a new Hoover, watched some more stuff on Netflix... loads.

All Floyd

Friday 9 May | 7.30pm

Tickets from £24

All Floyd are returning for another epic show, this time celebrating the 50th anniversary of Pink Floyd's Wish You Were Here.

Their 2025 tour provides the opportunity to experience the album in its entirety, along with favourites from The Dark Side of the Moon, The Division Bell, The Wall, Animals, and more.

90s and 00s Revival Club Night

Saturday 10 May | 8pm

Tickets from £12

Ages 18+

Misters Discos and Wiltshire Creative have teamed up to bring you some serious nostalgia! Get on that double denim and enjoy a night dancing to some of your favourite tunes.

Fancy dress strongly encouraged!

Folk Rock Pioneers Steeleye Span in Concert

Thursday 15 May | 7.30pm

Tickets from £32

The band who changed the face of folk music over their fifty-six years together. Steeleye Span's new album

The Green Man Collection brings together tracks from recent releases with new versions of three classics, including a reworking of 'Hard Times' featuring Status Quo's Francis Rossi. As ever, performing a selection of songs from across the years and firm fan favourites.

Richard Herring: Can I Have My Ball Back?

Friday 16 May | 7.30pm

Tickets from £23.50

Ages 14+

In 2021 Richard Herring went to his GP to find out why his right ball seemed to be growing bigger. It turned out that he had testicular cancer and one month later he was lying in hospital waiting to have his murderous gonad removed. Would he survive? (No spoilers!) Richard is back with extra dates added for this tour!

Hundred Watt Club

Saturday 17 May | 7.30pm

Tickets from £22

Ages 18+

The risqué, raunchy and ridiculous people of Hundred Watt Club return to Salisbury with a glittering and glorious evening of burlesque and vaudeville!

Step into a world of old time glamour and new time wit. With a seductive, sizzling and sometimes very silly cast hand-selected by Lena Lenman, this show is a no-holds-barred, full throttle journey into the wonderful world of showgirls, spectacles and songbirds.

Salisbury Playhouse Cafe

Our warm and friendly foyer space is open from 10am to 4pm, Monday to Saturday.
