PATCH'S PARADE

Milford Street Bridge to Market Square

Sunday 26 May | 11am

FREE – no ticket required!

Patch is a giant who lives beneath Milford Street Bridge and is very, very shy. Patch dreams of venturing out into the exciting city of Salisbury to meet other giants.

At over 6 metres tall and with an army of 9 puppeteers, the awe-inspiring Patch and trusted Penguin pal will travel the Salisbury streets in a celebration of the city, heralded by over 100 local musicians, singers and dancers, rocking the route. At Market Square, the original Salisbury Giant, Christopher joins in. Grab your spot along the parade at 11am!

SING ALONG WITH THE PARADE

Hear our song as it dances and dives
 Hear our song as it surges and soars
 Hear our song as it dances and dives
 Hear our song as it surges and soars
 From the plains that rise to the north
 And the forest that rolls to the south
 From the valleys of chalk where the giants walk
 Hear our song
 Down the droves and the tracks of mud
 Down the rivers that shimmer and gleam
 Down the paths and highways,
 down lanes and byways
 Hear our song
